"The workers in the field used to have to take paper maps and documents with them. Now, thanks to the integration with PaperVision® Enterprise, they can just use whatever device they want, and instantly have the information they are looking for because it's all linked."

- Jordon Merson
Databases and Development Administrator

"PaperVision® Enterprise helps you take advantage of mobile devices while reducing risk, because all of the same data access and security settings you use to protect information inside your corporate network now also applies when the data is accessed on a mobile device."

- Rebecca Wettemann
Vice President

"PaperVision Enterprise is among the most feature-complete yet user-friendly ECM systems BLI has tested to date. Knowledge workers will be able to spend more time on customer-facing or revenue-generating activities and less time on wasteful administrative tasks."
